

Police Blotter

theloopny.com

spirited hyperlocal news

February 2010

2/8 – 2/15

ACCIDENT

A local couple was driving through the intersection on West Street and Harrison Avenue, when the driver, a 50-year old man, mistakenly hit the gas pedal instead of the brake pedal, sending their BMW up an embankment, and overturning it in the process. Trapped in their car, the couple was extricated by the fire department and subsequently taken to the hospital for injuries sustained. February 8

ARREST

Police pulled over a 19-year old local male on East Boston Post Road for an extinguished headlight. It was later discovered that the man was driving without insurance, with an expired inspection sticker, and had a small amount of marijuana on him. He was arrested and given an appearance ticket for February 11. February 10

IDENTITY THEFT

A Prospect Avenue resident reported someone had obtained his bank information and withdrawn a large amount of money from his account with an ATM card. The bank has been notified. February 11

BURGLARY

A couple reported jewelry missing from their home. There were no signs of forced entry. The husband indicated that the front door lock had been broken for some time. The day the burglary was alleged to have happened, February 11, the husband had left in the morning to drop his wife at work. When he arrived back at home, he secured the front door and remained home for the rest of the day. When the wife returned home, she discovered that jewelry was missing. Fayette Avenue. The investigation is continuing.

FORGERY

Chase Bank reported a man believed to be passing bad checks while wearing a UPS uniform. On February 12, a man fitting this description attempted to pass a check for over $5,000. The bank called police and officers arrested the man and charged him with possession of a forged instrument in the third degree and grand larceny in the third degree, a D felony. 535 East Boston Post Road

BURGLARY

A guest staying at an apartment on 627 Mamaroneck Avenue reported an attempted break-in. He claimed that on February 12, he heard the front door open and saw a Hispanic male, about 5'7", wearing a yellow knit cap with a stripe, black leather coat and jeans, attempt to enter. The suspect fled upon noticing that someone was in the apartment. Please call Mamaroneck police if you have any information on this suspect.

FIGHT

Two youths were involved in a fight, at 10:00 PM, near Rye Neck Union Free School District and FE Bellows Elementary School. Police responded and broke up the fight. 200 Carroll Avenue. February 14

LARCENY

A resident of the Avalon Willow reported $400.00 missing from his apartment. According to the victim, he had left the cash in plain view. There was no sign of forced entry. 140 New Street. February 15

Police blotter courtesy of "theLoop" getinloop.com

Unauthorized re-publishing of this information is prohibited.