

Police Blotter

theloopny.com

spirited hyperlocal news

March 2010

3/2 – 3/7

VILLAGE OF MAMARONECK

ACCIDENT-PEDESTRIAN

A 61-year old woman claimed she was struck in the knee while crossing Palmer Avenue. The alleged perpetrator, a 41-year old woman driving a 2008 GMC, said that she wasn't aware she hit the woman, but was alerted to the situation by the woman's screams. She went back, but denied hitting the woman and thinks she fell down. March 5

LARCENY

A student at Mamaroneck High School on Palmer Avenue reported his iPod stolen. He hung up his jacket in the gym, with the iPod in the pocket, and when he returned, the iPod was gone. March 5

ACCIDENT-PEDESTRIAN

While driving down Mamaroneck Avenue, a 76 year-old man in a 2006 Toyota struck a 57 year-old man exiting a vehicle. The man driving the Toyota claims the other man stepped into traffic. The victim was taken to White Plains Hospital with minor injuries. March 6

DWI

Officers on patrol noticed a vehicle obstructing traffic. The driver appeared to be intoxicated. He was arrested and administered a Datamaster test; he was charged with driving while intoxicated. He was released on $250 bail and will return to court on March 11. March 7

DISPUTE

Two 25 year-old females were engaged in a verbal argument and pushing match in the restroom at Molly Spillane's on Mamaroneck Avenue. The women were friends and no charges were pressed. March 7

Police blotter courtesy of "theLoop" getinloop.com

Unauthorized re-publishing of this information is prohibited.