

September 10, 2020 Village Art Council Meeting via Zoom

Attendees:

Nora Lucas – Village Trustee
Dan Sarnoff – Asst. Village Manager
Jane Dorian – Board Member
Violet Useda-Linder- Board Member
Melinda Buie - Board Member
Chari Topol-Allison- Board Member
Marina Kiriakou-Board Member
Joyce Marie – Volunteer
Melissa Moak – Volunteer
Solange DeSantis – Volunteer
Robin Campbell – Volunteer

Meeting call to order by Useda Linder, seconded by Buie at 7:23pm.

- 1) The August minutes were reviewed and approved.
- 2) Mask Project – the deadline for masks will be moved to Oct 15th to allow for more contributions. Kiriakou will reach out to Art teachers in Mamaroneck and Rye Neck to involve their students in project. Additional publicity via Facebook and other local avenues will be used to promote project. Exhibition of the Masks will be set for early December.
- 3) Art on the Avenue – Timeline for Art on Avenue was discussed. The project will be moved to a Spring debut to allow development of the idea and for people to enroll. Logistics and promotion to be worked on in the next few months to begin developing artwork in Winter 2020. Addition question as to focus/theme for artwork produced – What Inspires you?
- 4) Arts & Crafts Fair – Chari highlighted the Powwow Marketplace as a model for December Craft Fair and as an ongoing on-line venue for artists. Using Facebook and/or Instagram links to individual webpages for purchase.
- 5) The Spooktacular event is cancelled due to Covid-19.

Motion to close meeting was asked by Dorian, Buie seconded – 8:15pm.