

In honor of National Poetry Month, we invite children for

Painting Poetry Pebbles

Monday, March 27, 3:30-5:00 pm
Mamaroneck Library Community Room
Children of all ages welcome*

Join us to help prepare an interactive poetry experience for our community. Children who attend will paint "poetry pebbles" that will reside in the Mary Louise Cox Poetry Garden for interactive play. In addition, participants will take home a "poetry pebble" of their very own.

*Paint will not be washable so please wear appropriate clothing and plan to assist young artists.
