

THE VILLAGE OF MAMARONECK'S TREE COMMITTEE AND THE MAMARONECK PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENT A VIRTUAL

AUTHOR TALK

WITH

DOUGLAS TALLAMY

Thursday, October 14, 2021, 7:00pm

GET THE BOOK

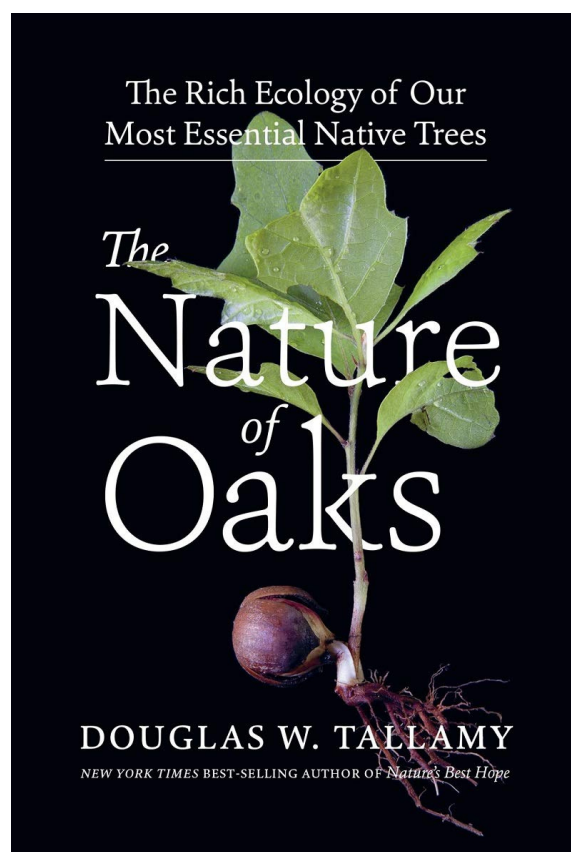

Place a hold on the print edition of THE NATURE OF OAKS in the library catalog. The eBook and eAudiobook are also available through Hoopla with your Mamaroneck Public Library card. Do you prefer to purchase your own copy? It's available at Andersons Larchmont too. Perfect for your summer reading!

JOIN THE DISCUSSION

Beverley Sherrid, Co-Chair of the Village's Tree Committee, will also lead a virtual Book Discussion Group of Douglas Tallamy's book THE NATURE OF OAKS on Wednesday, September 29, at 7pm. Join the discussion on 09/29 and then meet the author on 10/14!

Register for the September 29th Book Discussion Group and/or the October 14th Author Talk (both on Zoom) at www.mamaronecklibrary.org

Professor of entomology and wildlife ecology at the University of Delaware, Douglas Tallamy is the New York Times best-selling author of THE NATURE OF OAKS (Timber Press, 2021). From woodpeckers who collect and store hundreds of acorns for sustenance to the beauty of jewel caterpillars, THE NATURE OF OAKS illuminates and celebrates the wonders of nature. It will inspire you to treasure these trees and spring into action to help nurture and protect them.

Special thanks to Mamaroneck High School and Rye Neck High School for incorporating THE NATURE OF OAKS into their classes.
